Haydn string quartet Op 64 violin 1

Allegro con brio.

Op. 64, no. 1

(1732—1809)

This musical score is for the first violin part of Haydn's String Quartet Op. 64, No. 1. It is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The tempo is marked "Allegro con brio." The score consists of 14 staves of music. It begins with a forte (f) dynamic and features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. There are several dynamic markings throughout, including sf (sforzando), p (piano), and pp (pianissimo). The score includes several first and second endings, indicated by "1" and "2" above the notes. A section labeled "A" appears on the fourth staff, and a section labeled "B" appears on the seventh staff. A section labeled "C" appears on the ninth staff, with the instruction "sopra una corda" (above one string) written above it. The score concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The overall style is characteristic of the Classical period, with clear phrasing and a lively tempo.
